LANDOR ASSOCIATION LECTURE

The School Hall, King's High

Landor Association is our umbrella organisation bringing together the many extended school families of both King's High School and Warwick Preparatory School. We are delighted to welcome Old Girl, executive mentor and theatre director, Sue Moore, one of the first King's High pupils to study business. Sue Moore has spent most of her career working with business leaders and clients including Microsoft, Yahoo!, Sony, BBC, CityFibre, CBS, The University of Cambridge and the John Lewis Partnership. She is often used as a keynote speaker. Sue's principal personal interest is theatre. She is an Hons. Licentiate of LAMDA, has a distinction for the RADA Shakespeare certificate and has performed in the non-professional theatre for over 50 years. She is currently the Artistic Director of the Loft Theatre Company in Leamington Spa and a member of its Trustee Board, where she also directs and performs. Sue is a highly entertaining and accomplished speaker and we are delighted that she will deliver our eighth Landor Lecture. She is also happy to take questions from the floor after her lecture.
